Hello Bruce -

Thanks for your note.

The building on the corner of 6th and Centre is owned by Greg Morena - it is the site of his new restaurant, Pappy's.
The majority of the mural was funded by Greg and the last $2500 of the project was paid to the artists by the PBID.

Wondering why you are asking?

I have noticed the garbage in the alley as well - when the artists were painting the mural, we had to ask Clean San Pedro to help remove the trash.
I was there today and Clean San Pedro just finished cleaning. The alley is part of their contract with the PBID.

Subject: Mural Project

Linda,

Could you give me some idea of how the building at the corner of 6th and Center was chosen for the PBID financed mural project, and how much of the budget (I think I remember it was $10k... correct me if i am wrong) went toward the murals on this building?

Thanks,

Bruce Ecker
